ADDENDUM TO JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 5 October 1977

SSCI J-2
[Redacted]
1264

1. [Redacted] BRIEFING Accompanied seven Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff members to an all day orientation briefing on the Agency. Staff members attending included Janice Coil, Kenneth de Graffenreid, Angelo Codevilla, Susan Mahler, Keith Raffel, Patrick Norton and Abram Shulsky. Raffel joined us mid-way, after receiving his compartmented briefing. Speakers were Jim Taylor, Comptroller, on Agency overview; [Redacted] SA/DO/O: Zeke Zellmer, A/DDS&T: [Redacted] DDI/CPS/CSS; and [Redacted] O/DDA. [Redacted] took the group on the tour of the Operations Center. At the end of the day, I got Agency badges for Codevilla, de Graffenreid and Norton.

[Redacted] LIAISON Talked to Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, several times in an attempt to set up meetings for him. We agreed he would meet with [Redacted] C/CI Staff, on 7 October at 3:30 p.m. and that he and Ed Levine, also of the Committee staff, would review materials on [Redacted] the morning of 7 October. Evans asked about S. 1264, a bill which would affect the Agency's procurement authorities and I told Evans' we were aware of the bill and would ask [Redacted] of OLC, to call him on it.

3. [Redacted] LIAISON Talked with Tom Moore, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and Elsie Vance, Executive Assistant to Senator Gary Hart (D., Colo.), and set up an appointment with Senator Hart and Moore on 6 October at 3:00 p.m. with Robert Gambino, Director of Security. Gambino will discuss the Director's industrial security program.

4. [Redacted] LIAISON Called Barbara Chesnik, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, about her request for a recent report on Soviet arms aid to the third world. I told Chesnik I had a recently released unclassified report on the same subject but that it covered all types of aid not just military. She said she had found the study I was referring to and I could drop her request for a copy.
